2. Prerequisites

- 2.1. A CB shall be accredited as conforming to ISO/IEC 17021 and related applicable IAF mandatory documents.
- 2.2. A CB seeking accreditation for AS9110 or AS9120 shall already be accredited for AS9100.

3. Application Process

- 3.1. The AS9100, AS9110, and AS9120 applications in .pdf format can be obtained for informational use at www.anab.org. Click on "Applications" from the menu at the left of the page, then click on the link for "applications in .pdf format" in the fifth paragraph, and then click on the links for the application forms for each standard.
- 3.2. When the CB is ready to apply for AS9100, AS9110, or AS9120 accreditation, the application process outlined at www.anab.org/HTMLFiles/cb_aps.htm must be completed via ANAB's EQM database.
- 3.3. The application fee includes the cost of the off-site documentation review. Note: ANAB will invoice for subsequent reviews.

4. Initial Assessment and Accreditation

- 4.1. For AS9100, ANAB shall conduct a documentation review, office assessment, and full-system witnessed audit.
 - 4.1.1. An ANAB accreditation assessor shall conduct a full documentation review.
 - 4.1.2. After the documents are found acceptable, ANAB shall conduct an on-site office assessment.
 - 4.1.2.1. An ANAB accreditation assessor qualified as an AS9100 AEA may conduct a concurrent on-site documentation review and office assessment.
 - 4.1.3. ANAB shall witness the CB conducting a two-stage audit.
 - 4.1.3.1. The ANAB assessment team shall have the same number of members as the CB audit team, and members of the ANAB assessment team shall be qualified as AS9100 AEAs.
 - 4.1.4. Upon completion of the documentation review, office assessment, and witnessed audits, and satisfactory resolution of any nonconformances, ANAB shall concurrently ballot the ANAB Accreditation Council and the AAQG RMC for approval of accreditation of the CB for AS9100.
- 4.2. For AS9110, ANAB shall conduct a documentation review and witnessed audit.
 - 4.2.1. An ANAB accreditation assessor qualified as an AS9100 AEA shall conduct the documentation review.
 - 4.2.2. After the documents are found acceptable, ANAB shall witness the CB conducting a two-stage audit.
 - 4.2.2.1. A suitable organization for witnessing includes any organization that is able to conform to AS9110.
 - 4.2.2.2. The ANAB assessment team shall have the same number of members as the CB audit team, and members of the ANAB assessment team shall be AS9110 AEAs or AS9100 AEAs accompanied by an AS9110 expert.
 - 4.2.3. Upon completion of the documentation review and witnessed audits and satisfactory resolution of any nonconformances, ANAB shall concurrently ballot the ANAB Accreditation Council and the AAQG RMC for approval of accreditation of the CB for AS9110.

4.3. For AS9120, ANAB shall conduct a documentation review.

4.3.1. An ANAB accreditation assessor qualified as an AS9100 AEA shall conduct the documentation review.

4.3.2. After satisfactory completion of the documentation review and satisfactory resolution of any nonconformances, ANAB shall ballot the ANAB Accreditation Council for approval of accreditation of the CB for AS9120.

5. Maintaining Accreditation for AS9100, AS9110, or AS9120

5.1. Continuance of Accreditation

5.2. ANAB shall conduct an annual office assessment and annually witness a CB team (a team may be one auditor) conducting one AQMS audit.

5.2.1. The office assessment shall be conducted concurrently with other accreditation programs for which the CB is accredited.

5.2.2. ANAB shall witness at least one AQMS audit a year. ANAB shall witness each standard (AS9100, AS9110, and/or AS9120) for which the CB is accredited at least once in each four-year accreditation cycle, considering also the number of certifications for each standard. ANAB shall witness an AS9100 or AS9110 audit each year, and if the CB is also accredited for AS9120, ANAB shall witness an AS9120 audit, in addition to an AS9100 or AS9110 audit, at least once in the four-year accreditation cycle.

6. Appeals

6.1. ANAB will notify the chair of the AAQG RMC upon receipt of an appeal of any ANAB action or decision by a CB accredited for AS9100, AS9110, or AS9120. At the time ANAB is forming a panel to hear an appeal, ANAB shall inform the chair of the AAQG RMC, who may appoint an individual to participate as a non-voting member of the ANAB appeal panel.

7. Suspension or Withdrawal of Accreditation

7.1. Upon suspension or withdrawal of accreditation of a CB for AS9100, AS9110, or AS9120, ANAB shall promptly (within five business days) inform the chair of the AAQG RMC of the suspension or withdrawal and shall update OASIS to indicate the suspension or withdrawal.

7.2. While suspended, a CB shall continue to conduct surveillance and re-certification audits required to maintain certification of its AQMS clients and may continue to conduct initial audits, but may not issue certification for any new AQMS clients while suspended.

7.3. The period of suspension shall be for no longer than six months.

7.4. The CB shall notify all of its AQMS clients of its suspended status within one month of suspension.
